PETITIONING THE COURT*To issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number      Nature of Noncompliance

- 1      Special Condition # 36: You shall be prohibited from possessing or manufacturing any material, including videos, magazines, photographs, computer-generated depictions, or any other forms that depict sexually explicit conduct involving children or adults, as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2). Neither shall you enter nor frequent any establishment involved in the sex industry, including but not limited to adult bookstores, massage parlors, and strip clubs. You shall not utilize any sex-related adult telephone numbers. The supervising officer is authorized to monitor compliance in this area by obtaining relative records including but not limited to telephone, Internet, and credit cards.

Supporting Evidence: Jose Ventura reported to the United States Probation Office on October 5, 2015, and admitted to viewing pornography on his cell phone on September 13, 2015. Mr. Ventura reported the cell phone he was using at that time was a replacement phone he was using as his regular phone broke. He explained he had blocked the internet usage feature through his cellular provider, but while using the new phone, found that he could access the internet. He opened the internet browser on the phone and searched for "porn." Mr. Ventura stated he viewed pornography for a couple of hours, but he did not get aroused by the pornography nor did he admit using it for masturbation purposes.
